COOL SUMMER CAMPS at CCS

Students entering Grades 4-8

July 17-21, 2017

12:30-3:00 p.m.

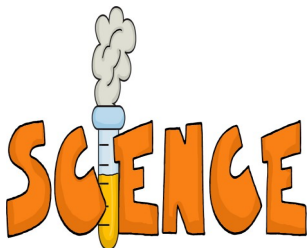

Students entering Grades 1-3

June 26-30, 2017

9:30-12:00 noon

Daily opportunities to imitate and create await your budding artist! Students will explore different techniques with direct feedback from art instructor, Whitney Ledesma. Projects in painting, drawing, printmaking, and sculpting, with all materials supplied, will engage students in the creative process. Fee: $75

Journey into the delightful world of books with Michelle Paxton. Reading, discussion, crafts, snacks, and hands-on activities will revolve around a central story each day, culminating in a fun Friday field trip to a local Virginia park with Mrs. Paxton and Mrs. Sawanowich as drivers/chaperones. Fee: $75

Students entering Grades 2-4

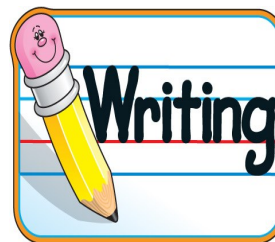

June 26-30, 2017

Students entering Grades 5-7

July 10-14, 2017

12:30-3:00 p.m.

Join instructor Sara Winant for a week of fun and explosive science experiments. Students will individually and cooperatively investigate, build, and discover using critical thinking skills and learning about the scientific principles God put in place to govern our universe. Fee: $75

Students entering Grades 4-8

July 17-21, 2017

July 24-28, 2017

9:00-12:00 noon

Two separate opportunities are provided to strengthen your power with the pen under the guidance of teacher Amanda Barnett:

- (1) A review and practice of Institute for Excellence in Writing style and structure techniques to make any writing sparkle with sophistication. Fee: $75
- (2) A week devoted to creative writing—examining and applying the practices used by successful storytellers. Fee: $75

Space is limited. Register early to secure your spot. Classes are open to the public.
